The climate is tough.

It's not a place for the faint of heart.

But those who brave it are rewarded with some of the most breathtaking views you'll ever see.

The mountains stretch

as far as the eye can see,

and the air is so fresh,

you'll want to stay forever.

And if you're lucky,

you might even catch a glimpse of a snow leopard or a gazelle, roaming the open plains.

But be warned:

the weather can change

in an instant.

So pack your warmest

jackets and your best

smiles.

You won't be disappointed.
